THE COLLECTIVE
DANCE CHALLENGE

April 9-12, 2026

DEKKER CENTRE | NORTH BATTLEFORD, SK

WELCOME

about us

At The Collective Dance Challenge, we believe in the power of dance to unite, inspire, and elevate. Founded by Hanna and Cayla, two passionate individuals with a shared vision for fostering community within the dance world, our platform is more than just a competition – it's a celebration of artistry, camaraderie, and growth.

Drawing from our own experiences as competitive dancers and professionals in the dance industry, we understand the importance of providing a supportive platform for dancers of all levels. Whether you're a seasoned performer or just beginning your dance journey, The Collective Dance Challenge offers a space for you to showcase your talents, connect with fellow dancers, and embark on a journey of self-discovery.

our mission

Our mission is simple: to create an inclusive environment where dancers can learn, grow, and inspire one another. From our carefully curated competitions to our supportive community, everything we do is centered around nurturing talent and fostering a sense of belonging.

Join us as we embark on this exciting journey. Together, let's dance, grow, and create unforgettable memories at The Collective Dance Challenge.

MASTER OF CEREMONIES

Crimson Haslehurst

Crimson Haslehurst (she/her) is a performer, instructor, and coach known for her big smile and passion for movement. Originally from Vermilion, AB, she trained extensively in many disciplines before moving to Vancouver to further her professional dance career.

Crimson has trained with Harbour Dance Centre's Intensive Training Program (ITP) under Moe Brody, Source Dance Company under Joanne Pesusich, The Professional Dance Career Course (PDCC) with Kim Gingras, Camp Protege, and The Bridge with Stacey Tookey.

Her professional credits include Grease: Rise of the Pink Ladies, Innovate Vol. II and Vol. III, and serving as an assistant for the BC Opening Games under Melena Rounis. She has also been part of various live productions, music videos, and film projects. Crimson is a proud member of The Lolos Showgirls, a professional dance company known for its live performances and theatrical productions. Crimson is a NASM Certified Personal Trainer and has received training in Sugarfoot Therapy and Mental Skills Coaching with Lauren Ritchie. Her certifications include Acro Dance Teachers Association (ADTA), Progressing Ballet Technique (PBT), and Canadian Progressions Junior Grades Ballet Instructor.

Whether teaching, performing, or at live events, Crimson's goal remains the same: to inspire joy through movement and connection.

*Congratulations to all of the

INTRODUCING YOUR ADJUDICATORS

Paige Vassos

Paige Vassos is a versatile dancer, educator, choreographer, and adjudicator from Vancouver, BC. Paige holds a Master of Management, a Bachelor of Arts (Psychology), and holds her Certificate in Ballet Teaching Studies (CBTS) as well as Registered Teacher status (ARAD, RAD RTS) through the Royal Academy of Dance. She is also certified in Progressing Ballet Technique (PBT) and is a qualified adjudicator through The Dance Leadership Institute.

With over a decade of teaching experience across British Columbia and five years of international work, Paige is committed to fostering technical excellence and artistry in dancers of all levels. She has trained under the mentorship of Esther Juon (Juon Pointe, New Zealand), specializing in anatomy-based pre-pointe training, safe transitions to pointe, and pointe shoe fittings.

Paige trained with The Source Dance Company for two seasons as well as West Coast Choreo Lab. Her versatility has led to appearances, performances, and choreography for Lululemon promotional campaigns, various television and film productions, motion capture work, and the Vancouver Fringe Festival. More recently, she has pursued international training opportunities with Galen Hooks, House of Jazz, and Response Theatre Company (London, UK).

Paige strives to inspire and empower dancers through performance, choreography, and education, instilling in them a lifelong love for dance.

Justin Hauber

Justin Hauber (he/him) is a seasoned dance professional from Lloydminster, Saskatchewan. He discovered his passion for dance at a young age and began his training at Fame Dance Studios under the guidance of Sarah C.R. Makins. Justin furthered his education at Harbour Dance Centre in Vancouver, where he honed his skills in various genres of dance. Justin specializes in Contemporary, Lyrical, Jazz Funk, Hip Hop, Ballet, and Broadway Jazz.

Justin's professional career spans nearly a decade, with six years spent performing with Royal Caribbean Cruise Lines. During this time, he had the opportunity to work with world-renowned directors, choreographers, and dancers on iconic ships such as Anthem, Spectrum, Quantum, and Ovation of the Seas. His experiences touring Asia, the Caribbean, Canada, Australia, Europe, and New England have not only shaped his craft but also given him a unique perspective on life.

As an educator, Justin has taught and mentored many dancers, including at the innovative dance camp, Where We Connect, in Saskatchewan. He is dedicated to providing constructive feedback and support to dancers in a safe and inclusive environment.

Currently, Justin is a member of Step One Dance Company in New York City, collaborating with esteemed choreographers such as Talia Favia, Benjamin Schwimmer, Bo Park, and Ronnie Todorowski. With his extensive experience in performance, choreography, and training, Justin continues to inspire and nurture the next generation of dancers.
